§ 1. Purpose and duration of the cooperation

- (1) The Contractor will receive a payment from Dekabristen e.V. in the amount of EUR 730 and carry out the project "Gender Equality for Sustainable Development in Guria Region" according to the workplan (attachment 1) in the period from 08.09.2022 until 26.09.2022.
- (2) After the completion of the project, the Contractor must submit a report until 10 October 2022. The report must be submitted via email.

§ 2. Scope of work

The result of the project is to implement three capacity building activities for the Municipal Gender Equality Council members and establish close coordination with the councils with reference to SDG 5 in three self-governing units of Guria: Lanchkhuti, Ozurgeti and Chokhatauri Municipalities. The capacity building activity aims at incorporating national indicators regarding SDG5 into the annual action plan and long-term gender equality strategy, and raise awareness of the members that will contribute to the meaningful changes with regard to women's needs. The activities will be accompanied by press releases and social media posts.

As a result, 70 council members are capable of actively informing local governments on commitments and activities outlined in state strategies and action plans on gender equality and women's role in advancing local politics and are empowered and informed how to include the needs of women living in the region in the strategy and action plan for 2023. Through press releases and social media activities, around XX people will be reached.

§ 3. Payments

The payment in the total amount of EUR 730 will be transferred via bank transfer in two parts: EUR 584 EUR after the first deliverable is submitted, and 116 EUR after the second deliverable is submitted.
