

Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for Joint Grant Project Applications

“YSU Center of Social Innovational Research and IDFI | Institute for Development of Freedom of Information”

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) outlines the terms and conditions of our collaborative partnership for joint grant project applications and potential cooperation on projects where combined expertise can create significant value for both parties.

Purpose of Collaboration:

- We aim to collaborate on joint grant applications for projects that align with our shared goals and areas of expertise.
- Our partnership extends to projects that we have not previously applied for together but where our collective knowledge, resources, and skills could yield mutual benefits.

Scope of Cooperation:

- We will explore opportunities for the exchange of knowledge, information, and resources to enhance the quality and success of grant applications and project implementation.
- Our cooperation may include, but is not limited to, joint project planning, research, proposal development, and project management.

Shared Responsibilities:

- Both parties will actively contribute their expertise, resources, and efforts to achieve the objectives of the jointly pursued projects.
- We will maintain open communication and collaborative decision-making processes throughout the project lifecycle.

Confidentiality:

- We recognize the importance of confidentiality and agree to handle sensitive information with the utmost care.
- Any shared data or information will be used solely for the purpose of project collaboration and will not be disclosed to third parties without mutual consent.

Resource Allocation:

- Resource allocation, including financial contributions, will be determined on a project-specific basis and agreed upon by both parties in advance.

Amendments:

- Any amendments to this MOU must be made in writing and signed by both parties.

Termination:

- Either party may terminate this MOU with written notice to the other party, provided in advance.

By signing below both parties indicate their acceptance of the terms and conditions outlined in this MOU.
