

Memorandum of Understanding

Tbilisi, Georgia

20 June 2014

National Security Council of Georgia (Hereinafter referred to as Council), represented by the Secretary of the Council Irine Imerlishvili and 'Institute for Development of Freedom of Information' (Hereinafter referred to as Institute), represented by the director Giorgi Kldiashvili, on the basis of goodwill, agree as follows:

1. Goal of the Agreement

- 1.1. With the aim of broadening the transparency and accountability of the Council, elaborating the rule of proactive disclosure of information in compliance with the legislation of Georgia as well as standard of disclosing of public information through web-page, Institute will provide the Council with the recommendations in order to ensure further transparency of the official web-site of the Council.
- 1.2. Council will utilize the recommendations provided by the Institute in practice.
- 1.3. Activities under the agreement will be implemented on the voluntary, non-profit basis through cooperation between the parties.

2. Parties:

Irine Imerlishvili

Secretary of the National Security Council of Georgia

Giorgi Kldiashvili

Director, Institute for Development of Freedom of Information (IDFI)